2nd Annual Sautee Plein Air Painting Experience

October 14-15-16, 2021

About Sautee: Sautee Nacoochee, Georgia in White County has been well known for decades as one of the Best 100 Small Art Towns in America. The Indian Mound at the intersection of GA 75 and GA 17 is the second most recognized place in Georgia. At the other end of Nacoochee Valley it joins Sautee Valley. As the two valleys spill into the Chattahoochee River they mark the home of the small, unique hamlet of Sautee Nacoochee. Sautee Nacoochee is home to a cultural heritage rich in history, legends, and according to residents who live there, the best zip code in Georgia. As an artist, you will not be disappointed in the scenes that excite your artistic soul.

Eligibility: Open to all artists with registration and entry fee of $30 for current members of SNCA and $35 for non-members. All work must be completed in the Sautee area (maps provided) on October 15 and 16, 2021 and stamped with SNCA insignia on back of your canvases at registration check in beginning at 7:00 am, October 15. Only artwork with SNCA stamp will be permitted in the exhibition and for sale. All artwork must be "for sale" and artwork not for sale will not be accepted for exhibition and judging. Artwork must not exceed 600 sq. inches in size. Artwork must be framed and ready to hang (or gallery wrapped canvas with sides painted), and clearly marked on the back with artists' name, title, medium, size, and price (Form provided upon submission for judging of awards.)

Entry Fee: Please submit a non-refundable entry fee of $30 (members of SNCA) and is $35 (for non-members of SNCA). Up to five (5) artworks may be submitted for judging. Entry fee includes admission to be eligible for awards, eligibility for Quick Draw and attendance at awards reception on Saturday.

Sales: This event is hosted by Sautee Nacoochee Cultural Center and Skylake Galleries. SNCA is a 501(C)3 Non-Profit Arts Council and will retain a 30% commission on sales during the exhibition of members of SNCA and a 35% commission on sales of non-members. Skylake Galleries as co-sponsors have elected not to receive any commission. Payments for all work sold will be mailed within ten (10) business days after the close of the event. Works will remain on display and for sale until Saturday at 7:00 pm, October 16 at the close of the awards reception and sale in the SNCA community hall. At the close of this event, artists are responsible for removing their unsold pieces. The event presenters are unable to ship any remaining canvases. After thirty (30) days, any unclaimed paintings will become the property of the Sautee Nacoochee Cultural Center and will be sold at its discretion.

“Simplifying Plein Air” Workshop with Amanda Lovett

This workshop is part of the 2nd Annual Sautee Plein Air Painting Experience hosted by Skylake Galleries and the Sautee Nacoochee Cultural Center

AMANDA LOVETT

One major issue with Plein Air painting is its overwhelming nature. Well, check your anxiety at the door! We will explore simplified techniques for capturing your composition, light envelope and color. Improve your color mixing skills by using a minimum palette and develop a better understanding of color harmonies.

This workshop has quick demonstrations with easy to understand techniques, after which, artists will concentrate on their own paintings with plenty of personal instruction. No matter if your goal is to create finished paintings, or simply gather information for your studio work, there is no greater way to grow as an artist than to learn how to capture what is actually in front of you!
